Mr. Underwood performed this service for the Middlesboro Elks last year and his address was one that excited much favorable comment all over the State. His services are in increasing demand for public addresses of this kind as well as for after-dinner speeches. Hopkinsville is proud of him as a gifted and graceful orator.

SUPPLEMENTAL

REGISTRATION

No Indication that It Will Be Heavier Than Last Year.

Up to 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon 146 voters had registered at the County Clerk's office, that number being about equally divided between the whites and colored. However, Deputy Clerk Barnes thought that when the hour for closing arrived the books would show the heaviest supplemented registration for three years. This seems hardly probably, but may be the case.

Last year's supplemental registration was 159—90 whites, 69 colored. The total registration was 2,068.

SLIGHTLY INJURED.

Frank Meacham Fell From An Elevator Tuesday.

Frank Meacham, an employe of the Mogul Wagon Works, nearly had the life scared out of him last Tuesday morning when he fell from an elevator, a distance of one story. He had brought up a keg of bolts from the cellar on the elevator and lost his balance. When found he was supposed to be seriously injured but an examination by his physician after he had been conveyed to his home proved that his injuries were hardly worth mentioning.

GREAT GAME

Of Football Promised Here
Saturday.

The Paducah High School football team and the Hopkinsville High School eleven will play a game at Mercer Park Saturday. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. The Paducah team is said to be a speedy one and an interesting contest is promised when they meet our boys here. The prospects are that the crowd on the occasion will be the largest of the season.

GREAT SPEECH

Packed House Heard the Eloquent
Congressman Talk
Democracy.

MANY LADIES WERE PRESENT.

Introduced By Col. W. R.
Howell In a Stirring Tribute.

Congressman A. O. Stanley spoke at the court house in the interest of the democratic national ticket Tuesday afternoon. The circuit courtroom where he spoke was crowded and the audience was very demonstrative. He was introduced by former Commonwealth's Attorney W. R. Howell in an eloquent speech praising his public services and referring to him as the "next U. S. Senator." Mr. Stanley disclaimed any purpose of exploiting himself and said it grieved him that his own candidacy, even as representative, should be mentioned in a great conflict on national issues, in which he appeared for his party and not for himself.

He spoke for an hour and a half and his speech was pronounced by all the best one he has ever made here.

Three of the coaches smashed up in the wreck on the I. C. Railroad on the 20th were switched onto the Belt Line Sunday and many people went out to see them. The steel coach was sent to Paducah. Contrary to reports, the three wooden coaches are very badly demolished. Two have an entire end crushed like an egg-shell and the third had practically everything in it wrecked and the windows torn out. All of them have their wheels intact.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Temperatures below the seasonal normal and frosts are to be expected during the coming week, according to the weather bureau's weekly bulletin.

HOME WEDDING.

Logan County Farmer Makes
Hopkinsville Young Lady
His Bride.

A pretty home wedding ceremony was pronounced by Rev. A. R. Kasey, pastor of the Methodist church, in the home of the bride yesterday afternoon. Miss Deannie Hadden, the bride, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hadden, South Virginia street. The groom is Mr. Charles Jennings, of Russellville.

At 4 o'clock the close friends and immediate relatives of the family gathered in the parlor to witness the ceremony. At 5 o'clock the happy couple were driven to the L. & N. station and boarded the South bound train for Russellville.

Mr. Jennings is a prosperous young farmer and the bride is a well known and popular young lady of this city.

FOLSOM-BASS

Pretty Home Wedding Of Mr.
Folsom And Miss Bass.

A pretty home wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Forbes last evening at 8:30 o'clock, united Mr. Chas. F. Folsom and Miss Cornie Bass.

The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. C. M. Thompson, of the First Baptist church, in the presence of a large number of friends. The beautiful home was elaborately decorated for the happy occasion.

The matron of honor was Mrs. J. M. Forbes, the bride's sister, and the groom's best man was Mr. Nicholas Beades. After the ceremony the young couple left on a wedding tour.

Mr. Folsom is a talented young civil engineer, at present stationed with a railroad construction company near Birmingham, Ala. He is a relative of Mr. Grover Cleveland.

The bride is a lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Bass. Her childhood was spent in this city, but for the last few years her home has been in Pensacola, Fla. She is a young lady of unusual beauty and many charms of person. These attractions together with her brightness of mind and numerous accomplishments, have made her a social favorite with a wide circle of friends.

Religion and Politics.

CO. D BUSY

Boys Line Up For Drill Or Target Practice Every Monday Night.

THE OWL SHOOTING MATCH.

Commanding Officer Received
Medal For Nine Years'
Faithful Service.

Company D is determined to maintain its "rep." as one of the best companies in the Kentucky State Guard. The men are faithful in their attendance at drill every Monday night and in all competitive drills the contest is always close and determined.

Last Monday night they had what is called an "owl shoot." This is a new departure in target shooting. The men when firing are in the dark and there is no light except a small electric light just above the target.

Capt. Clark had two squads of five men each contest for the prize, a box of Ecco cigars.

Jack Tandy was captain of one squad and with him were Prof. Herschel A. Long, Roy Binkley, Arthur Boyd, Joe Morris.

Walter Bohannon was captain of the second squad, and with him were Ernest Cantrell, Hugh Boyd, J. F. Logan, Forest Boyd. Each man had 10 shots and the score was as follows, out of a possible 50:

Tandy.....	44
Long.....	43
Binkley.....	38
Boyd.....	42
Morris.....	43

Total.....200

Bohannon.....	41
Cantrell.....	37
Hugh Boyd.....	38
Forrest Boyd.....	39
J. F. Logan.....	45

Total.....200

After the presentation of the box of cigars by the manufacturer, Stanley Long, the box was opened and the soldier boys had a real smoker. Though the first squad won by 6 points, the best shot, 45, was made by J. F. Logan, of the composing room of this office. The rifles used were 22 Winchesters for indoor practice.

Paul Twyman won the medal in the competitive drill, which he will wear until he meets with defeat in a future drill.

Talking about medals, Capt. E. W. Clark received Tuesday morning from Adjutant General J. Tandy Ellis a handsome bronze medal for 9 years of continuous faithful service. Capt. Clark prizes the medal very highly, but he hopes in two years and a half more to wear a silver medal, as he will be entitled to it. When one has served 21 years the silver medal is taken up, and the final reward for faithful service is a gold medal.

Company D is up to the limit, 62 enlisted men and 3 officers. The officers are: E. W. Clark, Captain; Jewell W. Smith, First Lieutenant; James E. Clairborne, Second Lieutenant.

A year ago Monday Co. D. was ordered to Fulton, Ky., and remained on duty two months and a half. The Illinois Central Railroad strike was on and the strikers would probably have done a great deal of damage to property had it not been for the company's good service. Around their campfire Monday night the soldiers recalled their service and had a good time generally as they puffed away at their "Eccos."

Alumnae Dinner.

The Alumnae Association of B. F. College will serve dinner at Odd Fellows' Hall Monday for the benefit of the fund for the education of poor girls at the college.

CIRCUIT COURT

Equity Docket Will Be Handled
This Week.

This is the last week of Circuit Court. As the equity docket will be disposed of. There will be nothing of interest to the general public going on.

The case of the Commonwealth against Bradley Boyd and Will Pike, charged with robbery, was called last Friday and continued to next term.

The case of E. W. Major against Christian county and D. J. McClendon was on trial all day Saturday and consumed much of Monday morning.

Monday morning Mr. Duffy, representing the county, made a motion for a peremptory instruction. After argument the case was dismissed as to the county. Judges Breathitt and Bush, attorneys for Mr. Major, then asked Judge Hanbery to dismiss the case against Mr. McClendon, which was done. G. W. Southall was the attorney for Mr. McClendon.

This case, considering that only $300 was sued for, attracted a great deal of attention. A large number of witnesses testified and the counsel on both sides made a hard fight.

The jury which was in their room during the argument on the motion of Mr. Duffy, was recalled and told by the Judge that the case was no longer under their consideration and the regular jury for the term was dismissed. No appeal will be taken in the case of John B. Galbreath.

FOUR MORE STATES

Must Ratify the Income Tax Amendment.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Twelve states have yet to act on the income tax amendment to the Constitution, and it is not unlikely that enough of them will ratify it the coming winter to make it the duty of the Secretary of State to issue a proclamation announcing the adoption of the amendment. These are the states which have yet to act on the amendment:

Delaware, Florida, Louisiana, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New Mexico, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming. Four are necessary to make the law effective.

RESTORING GARDEN OF EDEN

British Engineer Believes System of Irrigation Will Bring Back Fertility to the Locality.

Sir William Wilcocks delivered an interesting lecture before the members of the Royal Geographical Society in London one night recently on the subject of "The Garden of Eden and Its Restoration."

He said it was no unreasoning tradition which placed the Garden of Eden of Sumer and Akkad at Harma, the late point of junction of the Tigris and Euphrates, though he could not but think it would eventually be found just north of Ur, at the ancient junction of the two rivers. Today, on the lower Euphrates, in that very region, the Arab conquerors of the seventh century placed one of their four earthly paradises. The trees of life were there sheltering the garden, and the forbidden fruit of the vine, the nectar of the gods, but indulged in by curious Eve, to her undoing. Before any work was undertaken for the regulation of the Tigris or raising its flood surface, borings should be taken from up stream of the site of Nimrod's dam, in a southeasterly direction, to see if it might not be possible to imitate the action of the old Babylonian engineers, and turn the Tigris again over the confluence. If such action could be taken, there would be an economy of over $3,000,000. It was his firm trust that works carried out on the broad lines of the project he had submitted to the Turkish government would secure a firm foundation for the resuscitation and further prosperity of that once famous land.

Almost A Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 lbs. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and Colds with excellent results." It's quick safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at All Druggists. Advertisement.

THE USUAL START.

"Doctor, I want to become so I can raise great weights. Can you get me that way?"
"Guess so, but your physique is rather slight at present."
"I know it is. I thought maybe I could raise a little at first, and work up."
"Yes, we'll have to go at it gradually, take a long course of treatment."
"All right, doctor. What shall I raise to start with?"
"Better make $100, I guess."

Mrs. John Drew Better

McLeansboro, Ill. — "About five years ago," says Mrs. John L. Drew, of this place, "I was afflicted with pains and irregularity every month. I suffered continually, was weak and dependent, and unable to do my household work. I took Cardui, and in one month, I felt like a new woman and worked hard all summer. I am now in perfect health, and recommend Cardui to all suffering women." Every day, during the past 50 years, Cardui has been steadily forging ahead as a result of its proven value in female troubles. It relieves headache, backache, womanly misery and puts fresh strength into weary bodies. Try it. Advertisement.

FARMING NOTES.

AMUSEMENTS

It's a merry-maker "Seven Days," the attraction at Holland's Opera House Nov. 2, holds the record. In New York it ran two straight weeks and in season reached a third. A third year on Broadway, and months in Chicago, and more months in Boston and Philadelphia. The show has more delightful humor, more lighter to the minute, more wit, more comedy and funnier complications in its two hours and three quarters than any other play ever written, any three or four, according to Munsey's Magazine.

WOES OF COLLEGE ATHLETE.

Intercollegiate and even international athletics have reached such a degree of importance that we find the colleges not merely employing at a great expense coaches, trainers, and rubbers, but also spending vast sums upon grounds, buildings, and the outfitting of the same, to produce victorious results from the various teams. If such results do not materialize those employed are discharged and others of more strenuous or capable sort are engaged. These directors of athletics are kept busy endeavoring first to attract and enroll successful scholastic athletes to their college, and, once there, to try them out, and then to train their abilities to a higher order, which consumes not merely a great deal of the new recruit's time, but his strength and freshness as well. For it requires a high degree of excellence and laborious practice to meet and conquer the skill sent out by the great institutions of the land.

Candidates for the football team are put through three or four hours' daily practice at top speed, most exhausting to both the physical and mental vitality. For, be it understood, the games today are not merely of brawn, but also of brain. This practice starts as soon as the study periods end, from September until December, and lasts until darkness makes it impossible to play any longer. When it is over the average young man is tired enough to drop in his tracks, and the lounge or the bed in his room, whether at college or at home, is far more attractive than poring over his books and wrestling with the next day's studies. They also have to play actual games, not merely on the home grounds, but at distances which take them away from their studies for ten days or more each year. The same routine is true of the baseball, track crew, and other teams.

While the colleges stand with the big stick threatening the young men with expulsion if they do not reach the necessary standard in studies, the coaches, on the other hand, whose positions and salaries are dependent upon turning out victorious teams, are using every persuasive power at their command to induce the men to come quick from their studies and to use up every bit of their physical and mental vitality to become expert and capable, so as to enable them to beat contending teams. In other words, there is the constant temptation of a divided loyalty—one to the student work, the other to the athletic. It is true that now and then colleges obtain men who seem able to do justice to both ends, but are extremely rare, and if the athletics of the colleges had to depend upon men of honor to the student body the teams would be extremely small.

The summary way of throwing out men who have worked harder for the athletic glory of their college than any student does over his books, because he is not quite up to the required standard, seems to be brutal and unnecessary. It is common talk to hear college presidents, provosts, and deans say that positively athletics do not count and will not in any way be considered in connection with the student's work, and that, in fact, they are not interested in athletics at all; but every one of these men who has not reached his dotage knows that, without athletics, and victorious athletics at that, his college will at once begin to go backward, and become less attractive to the student body, and, in fact, to the average father who is sending or contemplating sending his boy there.

Ask the same average father why he sends his boy to college, and he will tell you that it is for the associations, companionships, and experience gained rather than for the study results. Ask the average graduate of college of years past as to who have been the most successful men in later life of their various classes, and they will not point, with rare exceptions, to the best students of the class. Do Not Plant Diseased Trees.

It is now time to take up trees for transplanting, and a few suggestions may be offered to both fruitgrowers and nurserymen as to the requirements of the laws regulating the inspection and sale of fruit trees. The San Jose scale has this year spread in Kentucky more rapidly than ever before, probably because of the increased numbers of fruit trees being planted, many of them secured from outside the State and in some cases it is believed from nurserymen who are not complying with our laws.

Every non-resident nurseryman doing business in Kentucky is required by law to furnish on each package shipped or delivered a copy of his certificate from an official state or government inspector stating that the stock has been found free from destructive pests. Failure to furnish such a certificate or furnishing a false certificate renders a nurseryman liable to have his stock returned or destroyed.

Every Kentucky nurseryman must place on each package delivered a written certificate signed by him stating that the stock has been inspected as required by the law. Failure to furnish such a certificate or furnishing a false certificate renders him liable to a fine of fifty dollars for each offense.

Nurserymen and buyers are reminded that the certificate from a nurseryman must be written, which means that at least the date and signature must be in the handwriting of a responsible member of the firm. To meet the requirements of all the laws it is only necessary for a nurseryman to print on his shipping tags a copy of the certificate issued to him and add below it the following, leaving blanks for date and signature.

"I hereby certify that the contents of this package have been inspected and found free from pests as required by the Kentucky Law.

(For Signature.)

Buyers of nursery stock should examine packages and be sure that these laws are complied with. Duplicates of most certificates issued to firms doing lawful business in Kentucky are on file in this office, and inquiries as to the standing of a firm can generally be answered promptly.

Meat Shop Closed.

Patrons of the "Golden Rule" fresh meat house were surprised yesterday morning when they went to order their day's supply to find the doors closed. Persons asked about it stated that W. T. We have not heard anything of his future intentions.

GETTING RID OF MICE

LITTLE PESTS IN A TRAP OF THEIR OWN MAKING.

Expensive Patented Snare Not in It With the Sugar Bag, to Which Housekeeper Hereafter Will Pin All Her Faith.

Mice always bother the people who do not housekeep more than the ordinary householder, probably because the former is more apt to have few mouse-tight receptacles for food. Various traps have been tried by one couple who indulge in light housekeeping in a three-room apartment, says the Philadelphia Record. Sometimes, at large intervals, they managed to catch one of the pests. Every scheme of baiting and setting traps which they could find or invent was tried and the mice continued to eat everything they could get at, falling back on a diet of clothes when every bit of food had been successfully cached.

The mice seemed too wise to try the traps, no matter how fresh and well toasted was the cheese and bacon rind. The couple was almost in despair, and had nearly decided upon using poisons, to which, for sanitary reasons, they had hesitated to resort. The mice themselves, waxing over greedy, fell into a trap of their own setting, and one has been caught every day or two until now there are only one or two left, but the happy housekeepers have great hopes of catching them all.

One of the few provisions which had not been stored was the sugar, which is bought in a large, rectangular box, holding five pounds. The cover was slit a little way at one end and the sugar bowl filled by pouring from this aperture. The sugar was left out, because it was thought that mice did not possess a sweet tooth. Then one day when a large quantity of the boxful had been removed at one time, the woman opened the closet door, to stand frightened at some scrambling sounds she heard. She quickly located them in the box of sugar and realized what had happened.

The mice had discovered the sugar and had been feeding from it, gaining the tiny opening from a shelf beside which the box stood. She had taken out so much sugar that on its last trip the mouse, in its sudden fright, could not make the leap which would carry it through the small hole. The woman quickly put a piece of sugar over the opening and then carried the box to a pail of water, into which she shook the mouse.

Several others have trapped themselves in the same way and the woman declares that when they have eaten all the sugar she will rebait the box with some more, and never, never spend any more money on patent traps.

A fine grater is better than a knife for removing the surface of anything that is burned.

In washing laces that have become stained with perspiration first wash them with cold water and soap, and after the stains are removed put them into warm water.

Pine pillows should be made of butcher's linen. This is to be preferred to the color linens, for the oil in the pine will strike through in time and necessitate a thorough washing.

To clean a vinegar crust put a teaspoonful of lye in it and then fill it with water. Let this remain in it a few days and then rinse the crust out thoroughly, when it will be perfectly clean.

Mushrooms, or foods containing mushrooms, must not be eaten after having been allowed to get cold, as they are apt to develop injurious properties and become poisonous. Either eat all that is cooked or throw away what is left.

In order to clean bronze the article should be immersed in boiling water, then rubbed with a piece of flannel dipped in yellow soap suds and dried with a soft cloth and chamomile leather.

Damson Tart.

One and one-half pint damsons, one quarter of a pound of brown sugar. Put the damsons with the sugar between them into a deep earthenware dish and put in the middle of it a small cup turned upside down to prevent the juice from spilling; line the edges of the dish with pie crust and cover with same. Bake one-half or three-quarters of an hour in a good oven. Serve hot at table with cream. This is the English style and there will be found an abundance of fruit with each portion of crust.

Yellow Cake.

Large tablespoon of butter creamed with even cup of sugar, two eggs creamed in, one at a time, two-third cup of sweet milk, one even cup of prepared flour, two-thirds cup pasteurized flour, beat well, flavor to taste; bake in a sheet in not-too-hot oven; frost with white frosting made of butter with one cup powdered sugar, one spoonful of butter, boiling water to make thick paste and spread on warm cake. Bake until it stops single minutes.—Exchange.

There's A Reason.

In selecting a Vacuum Cleaner for our subscribers, both old and new, we bought the best to be found in our opinion and we think we have chosen wisely. They are to be had as cheap as $1.95 and if you want one at that price give us your order and we will have a machine for you in a week or ten days, but not with our name on it and possibly not the manufacturer's name. We have good ones in stock and will be glad to have prospective customers make thorough comparison of our machine with any one on the market at any price, and kind material considered. Durability and success in use is our watch-word. Advertisement.

GREAT FORCE OF DYNAMITE

Simple Explanation of the Power That This Explosive Is Known to Develop.

It is the popular impression that dynamite lacks the line of greatest resistance. Place a quantity of black powder on a rock and light it with a fuse. It will flash, simply burning the stone. Place a piece of dynamite on the same rock, and the rock will be shattered. Hence, the reasoning that dynamite follows the line of greatest resistance. Nothing could be farther from the truth, however. The black powder takes fire and explodes much more slowly than the dynamite, so that the elastic air that incloses it, as it does everything, gives way gradually, and the force is lost in the atmosphere. With dynamite, the explosion has been so sudden, the attack on the air so instantaneous, that for a fraction of a second it actually resists. The force of the dynamite is so tremendous that it cannot wait, and it is turned into the rock, which, for the instant, becomes the line of least resistance. An illustration of this may be seen during a display of lightning. A fork of it strikes across the sky. It packs the air so densely that it can no longer make rapid progress in that direction, and it turns aside, to follow the line of least resistance. It cannot wait for the air to yield. It is the same with dynamite.—Harper's Weekly.

TRIUMPH FOR THE ARTIST

Woman's Comment Convinced Him That He Had Really Painted a Picture Worth While.

"Critics had praised me, academies had granted me exhibition space," said the artist, "still I was modest enough to think I wasn't any great shakes as a painter. The thing that finally convinced me that maybe I was no dud, after all, was the remark of a woman who knew a good deal more about bargain counters than she knew about art. She studied a picture that had made critics overwork their vocabulary in praising it and her only comment was: 'My, I'll bet the Henrietta cloth in that woman's tea gown cost every cent of $2.50 a yard.' 'Just as a matter of curiosity I looked up my model and found that the dress she wore had cost just that a yard. Then I knew that I had been gifted with the divine fire. To depict values so faithfully that experienced shoppers can tell the cost of the cloth you paint seems to be hitting old art up at a pretty lively gait."

STOPPED THE RUNAWAY.

With extraordinary bravery a man named Ruddle, employed as a porter at Bickenhall mansions, Marylebone, London, England, the other day succeeded in stopping a runaway four-in-hand brake, at Maidstone. Seeing the plight of the passengers of the coach Ruddle leaped from the roadway to the box of the runaway brake and four, and sought to pull the horses up, but they were maddened with fear and pulled him from the box on their backs. He fell between the galloping animals, and the onlookers felt sure he would be crushed to death, but he regained his position with wonderful agility, and at length succeeded in bringing the horses to a standstill.

WOULD BE FORTHCOMING.

"I thought you advertised green peas fresh from the garden."
"I did," admitted the farmer nervously.
"Why have we none on the table?"
"Be patient. The peas are here, all right, but I misplaced the car opener."

USEFUL AS A TRAP.

"Mamma, what's the matter with the top of grandpa's head?"
"Sh, dear! He's asleep, and he has been swatting flies without knowing it."

HE'LL BE AN EDITOR.

"Is there anything you can do better than any one else?"
"Yes," replied the small boy. "I can read my own writing."—Christian Register.

One of the Number of Metcalfe's Exclusives

This is a cut of Metcalfe's new Prosperity Shaper, which is going such a long way in decreasing the irritation of men folks' necks and tempers, by letting all fold collars be so ironed that they slide well in collar, and collars are given nice, smooth, oval edge. It is utterly impossible for a collar to crack or break in our laundering process. Our shirt department is one which we feel proud of; not only is work done right, but the shirts are put in Sanitary Covers. Our Dry Cleaning department is in the hands of skilled workmen.

We have flowers for all occasions. Remember that if you buy or contract for $10 worth of coupon books, and take one during August and another when the Avalon is finished, the profits from the business, and more, go into the Avalon, a place of pleasure for Hopkinsville and surrounding country people.

DESIGNS FOR THE NURSERY

Decorations Many Mothers Like to Make, and They Are Not Hard to Accomplish.

Decorations for the nursery are now the fad of the modern mother, who often prefers to execute her own designs in order to express her individual taste upon her little ones. What are called "life motifs" or studies from nature are at present popular designs for decoration and can easily be achieved.

Take a single large sheet of water color paper and on this paste a variety of cut out white paper animals which are to serve as a frieze. At regular intervals of twelve inches paste one of these animals, a dog, cat, squirrel, kangaroo or any kind of bird. All these must be cut out of white paper, though a little variety is afforded by giving yellow bills and red feet to the chickens.

The walls above and below this frieze of white animals may be painted in tan color and so serve as a useful background to the decorations.

Trees for the motifs are also excellent and should be conventional in shape, modeled something on the lines of the Noah's ark type. Both large and small are cut out of white paper and colored respectively dark green and yellow and crimson. Two green trees, arranged side by side, may be alternated by red and yellow, and thus give a charming effect.

The "bird" motif in the brilliant colors of every gay hued parrot, robin, redbreast, bird of paradise, etc., is also highly effective on a background of gray cartridge paper and invariably please a nursery of children.

Chinese Business Methods.

Most of the Chinese business houses are now owned by partnerships, and most partnerships are of a large number of persons. The Chinese who has saved $100 local currency will at once invest it in a mercantile business and become a partner.

FIRST AID FOR RAINY DAYS

Indoor Sand Pile Something of a Moon for the Mother of Energetic Children.

The outdoor sand pile is a time-honored institution, but out of doors offers many other attractions, so we improved on the idea.

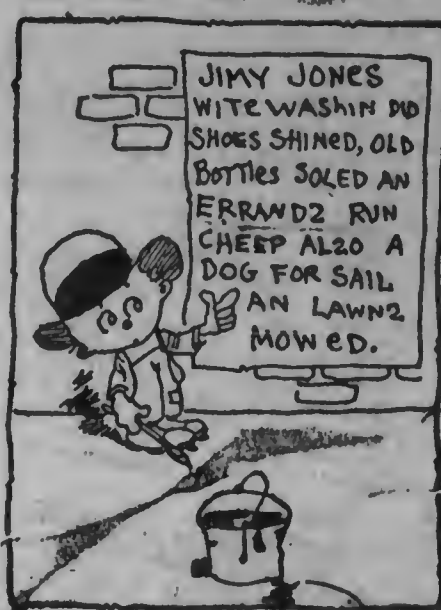

A box was made, about nine inches high, and in other dimensions just a little smaller than the nursery bed. It was fitted with casters, lined with a pale green oilcloth, and a box pleating of green denim was put around the outside with brass-headed tacks. Next a barrelful of fine white sand was put in—and the stormy day problem was solved.

The little maid, less than a year old when the box was first introduced, was perfectly safe, and she never seemed to tire of its endless attractions. Nearly all her toys were kept there; old playing cards would stand up in the sand to form houses and fences; trains of cars had much business to transact, and many hours were spent just laddling the sand into a big thick bottle with an old tin spoon, and pouring it out again.

When not in use the box was rolled under the bed, where it was concealed beneath the valances.

The little occupant was taught from the first that no sand was to go on the floor, and we never had the least trouble, even after the little sister came to share the box a few years later. Indeed, it proved the cleanest, safest and best device that ever was invented for keeping the little ones happily entertained.

PUBLICITY.

The Business Man—I wonder if I got it all down on me advertisement?

OLD-TIME SLAVERY.

There were negro slaves in all of the 13 states at the time of the adoption of the Constitution, the number being distributed as follows:

New Hampshire, 158; Vermont, 17; Rhode Island, 952; Connecticut, 2,759; New York, 21,324; New Jersey, 11,428; Pennsylvania, 3,373; Delaware, 8,887; Maryland, 103,086; Virginia, 293,427; North Carolina, 100,572; South Carolina, 107,097; Georgia, 29,264. At the same time there were in Tennessee 3,417, and in Kentucky 11,830, giving a total of 697,897 negro slaves, with a total population of 3,929,214

GETTING READY.

Bowler—All ready for the bowling season! I thought you were going to make extensive improvements in the alleys this summer? I don't see any.
